perfect	-(v)it	-(vē)runt

present- The fiend is working- Amicus labōrat

Imperfect- the friend was working- Amicus laborabat

Perfect- the friend worked- amicus laboravit

In latin sentences often the words for he, she, they are not included as they are implied through the words in the sentences

Superlatives

end in either

- issimi

- issimus

- issima

these endings depend upon the ending of the original word. If the original word ends in -i the superlative ends in -issimi. If the original word ends in -us then the superlative ends in -issimus. If the original word ends in -a then the superlative ends in -issima
